Kindly refer on the subject cited above and discussion held in this regard.

As you are aware, that the Haryana Vidhan Sabha General Election -2014 will be held on 15.10.2014 and counting of votes will be held on 19.10.2014. As per the direction of Election of India, separate arrangements for providing health care/first-aid assistance to the polling personnel at Counting Centers and Polling Stations are required to be made. Medical staff/para-medical staff shall be required to be stationed in those locations to be available in case of any requirement. Every polling party shall be supplied with oral rehydration salts for their own use as well as for any voter needing the same due to heat-stroke. A hand-bill on 'Do' and Don'ts' in case of heat stroke may be prepared and supplied to each of the polling parties. A small First-Aid kit containing basic medicines with user instructions should be provided to each polling party.

In view of above, you are hereby requested to kindly prepare a standard list of medicine and user instructions in English/Hindi for the benefit of polling personnel. Para Medical Staff member shall accompany every mobile patrol Unit and Sector Officer in their vehicles along with essential medicines. Such mobile patrol units shall touch every polling station once in every hour so that instant medical assistance would be available to any voter needing such help besides the first aid facilities given to the polling parties.

Please treat it as most urgent.
