

Norms set for the discharge of functions:

After the preparation of the project, the work is started as and when funds are received from the Government. The project is phased out for three years.